THE OTHER END OF THE TROLLEY.

A meeting of those interested in the new trolley road between Bristol and Newtown was held last Thursday afternoon in Langhorne, at the instance of A. Weir Gillespie, Esq., one of the incorporators of the company. The Newtown Enterprise gives the following particulars: "The members of the councils of the two boroughs of Langhorne and Langhorne Manor were present, together with prominent citizens of the boroughs of Hulmeville and Newtown.

"Mr. Gillespie stated that his object in calling the meeting was to hear an expression of sentiment, whether the boroughs would be willing for the proposed road to use their streets, and what would be the probable amount of business. There was a general expression of opinion. There was no objection to the use of the streets, except that they did not want the road on Station avenue, in Langhorne Manor.
The councils of both boroughs meet on the first Monday in January, when probably the right of way will be granted.

"On the probable amount of business, the consensus of opinion was that a road from Hulmeville to the upper part of Langhorne would pay at once, and that business would increase both north and south, from that centre.
Mr. Gillespie said that probably the road would be built from Bristol out past the cemetery, and through New-portville and Hulmeville, and that work would be first commenced at Langhorne, and proceed both directions from that centre. It was a very unanimous meeting, all anxious for the road."

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNCIL.

A special meeting of Council was held on Monday evening for the purpose of taking into consideration the renewal of the contract with the Bristol Water Company for the supply of water for fire-hydrants. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: RESOLVED, That the matter of a renewal of the contract existing between the Burgess and Council of the Borough of Bristol and the Bristol Water Company, relative to a water supply for the fire-hydrants of the borough, be referred to the Committee on Streets and Highways.

RESOLVED, That the said committee be instructed to confer with the Bristol Water Company in regard to such renewal, and to offer to said Water Company, on the part of the borough, a renewal of said contract for a term of one year at an annual rental of not exceeding three hundred dollars per-year.

It is expected that the committee will meet a committee from the Water Company some evening this week, and that a special meeting of Council will be called to give further consideration of the matter. The present contract expires on the 1st of January, and is for $600 per annum.

HOLIDAY TOURS.—During the holiday season there is always additional gayety in military circles, and nowhere is it felt more than at Fortress Monroe. With this in view, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has planned a charming Christmas holiday personally-conducted tour to Old Point Comfort, leaving New York at 8 A. M., December 27th, covering a period of four days, at round-trip rates of $18 from New York, Newark and Elizabeth; $17.50 from New Brunswick; $16.25 from Trenton; and $15.00 from Philadelphia. This rate includes railroad fare, accommodations at the famous Hygeia Hotel, and all necessary expenses.

At the same rate tickets, including one day's board at the hotel, will be sold good for return via Richmond and Washington, by regular trains within ten days.

For further information apply to ticket agents, Pennsylvania Railroad, or Tourist Agent, 849 Broadway, New York, or 223 South Fourth street, Philadelphia.

—Insurance companies are putting up the rates on barns in this county, on account of the number being destroyed by incendiary fires.

Ladies of quiet taste are often on the look for a Wrap that shall join something of the ease and comfort of a Shawl with the trimness of a Coat.

Here they are. Europe sent them. Long Mantilla-like garments of soft Camel's Hair, fine Serges, choice Vicunas and other rich stuffs. On or off as easily as a Cape. The first to come went quickly. A shipping blunder belated the last order. Maker takes the blame; the benefit may be yours—$40 Wraps at $20, all others at $25, including garment and to call at $25.

Welcome gift to grandmother, mother or wife. No other house in America has this line.

To people having small boys —3 to 8 years—to clothe.

If you give this your sober judgment 631 Suits of Boys' Clothes that now belong to us will be yours before the bell rings to close the store tonight.

They are all new. Warm Jersey cloth. Just right to wear under a Reefer. Dark blue, tasteful and very stylish.

The prices are $2.50, $2.75, $3, $3.50 and $4.

The values are $4, $4.50, $5, $6, and $6.50.

We have sold this season quantities of the $4 sort at $7.50. Are you interested?
Come early. If this community realizes this statement these Suits will go out in six hours.

Book choosing. Harder and harder every year—unless you know what you want. Not one in a hundred goes to the Book counter with mind made up. Not one in ten but buys almost haphazard in the Holiday rush—there's such a choice of editions, bindings and all that, even when you know the author and the book.

Not a bit of need for this uncertainty. You can bring all Holiday Bookdom to your easy chair-side if you wish.
Rub a nickle right and the Book News genius will be at your elbow—magic glass and magic carpet as well.

148 big page jammed full of just the words about Books that a book-wise friend would use to give you pointers.

And there are sample pictures—ninety of them—picked from the Books of the season, and now and then illustrative bits of letter press.

December Book picking.
